Learn About AT

What is AT? Could it work for you?

These programs can answer questions and educate people about AT.

Discover AT

How do you know what is possible? What are the new inventions? Is there a solution for you?

These programs work with you to see what might be useful to you.

Find Used AT

Do you need something but don't need it to be new?

AT Act programs collect and rehome some types of gently used AT.

AT Act Programs work with groups.

AT Act Programs work with other government entities and non-profit groups.

Try AT

Can you see and compare different AT? Can you see if it will work for you?

AT Act Programs provide demonstrations of AT for individuals and groups. These programs also have items that people can borrow for a short period of time.

Pay for AT

Do you know what you need, but it is too expensive for you?

These programs help people figure out how to pay for the technology. This includes finding special programs, grants or loans.

There is an AT Act Program in every US state and territory.
